

SPH INTERNAL NEW COURSE APPROVAL REQUEST FORM

Instructor Name(s):

Course # (if known):

Course Title:

Offered (F, Sp, Su):

Effective Semester/Year:

Cross-listed (if applicable):

Unit Value:

Grading Option:

Instructional Format (type of format and number of hours per week):

Estimated number of hours students will be expected to spend doing work outside of class:

Prerequisites and Restrictions (if any):

Course Description: (500 space limit; this is what will appear in the Catalog)

Please answer the following questions:

1. Describe primary student group served (e.g., undergraduate, MPH, DrPH, PhD, Area of Concentration, Graduate Group, other):

2. Describe the contribution this course will make to the broader curricular objectives of the School:

3. Describe potential overlap in content between this course and other courses in the School or in other Departments on campus. List all search terms and courses with potential overlap. Could there be any synergy with instructors for other SPH courses or in other Departments?

a) Search terms used in UC Berkeley course catalogue:

b) Courses (department, course number and name) with potential overlap:

c) Distinctive features of new course that distinguish it from others:

4. Role of Course: (check)

Required breadth course (meets accreditation requirements)

Required undergraduate public health major course (meets accreditation requirements)

Alternative to breadth course. Specify course:

Core course required for area of concentration. Specify area:

Curriculum enrichment (elective)

American Cultures

5. List learning objectives for this course. List at least three.

By the end of this course, students will be expected: